The Offshore Group Schedules Manufacturing Event for October

TUCSON, AZ, March 15, 2010 -- The Tucson, Arizona-based Offshore Group has recently announced that it will hold its annual Manufacturing in Mexico Summit at the Camino Real Hotel in the city of Saltillo, Coahuila, Mexico on October 14-16, 2010.

In addition to receiving information on topics such as:

- Comparative Advantages of Manufacturing in Mexico
- Mexican Labor Law and Regulations
- Customs and Environmental Issues
- Costing a Mexican Manufacturing Facility
- Operating Under a Shelter Plan
- Mexico as a Bridge to the Global Market

CEOs, CFOs, operation managers, company presidents and strategic planning personnel of manufacturing firms considering Mexico projects will have the unique opportunity to meet and share experiences with ranking executives from amongst Offshore Group clients in the aerospace, automotive, electronics, medical device, HVAC and general manufacturing industries.

Additionally, private meetings with Offshore Group staff may be scheduled to obtain personalized cost model analyses of anticipated Mexico projects.

For more information about the event, and company, contact 520-889-0022, ext. 1251, or visit the company's website from time to time for updates.

The Offshore Group has enabled manufacturers to set up and maintain production facilities in Mexico Since 1986. Fifty-one firms in all major industries currently employ an aggregate 10+ workers in The Offshore Group's modern, gated industrial parks in the Mexican state of Sonora, and the city of Saltillo, Coahuila. The Offshore Group also offers service to companies seeking to set up BPO, software development and call center/customer care centers in Hermosillo, Mexico through its Vangtel subsidiary.
